

i dont understand why the arrl would want to keep the morse code testing for the hf extra exam when a lot of countrys have drop the morse code testing for hf exams if the fcc grants this petition then there is a lot of people that cant pass the morse code test for the extra exam even if they pass the written test for the extra exam this would be a stumble block for them i ask the fcc to drop the morse code testing for all the hf exams please give everybody a chance to any license they want thank you.